

October 2018

Dear Parents/Carers

In order to support your child in achieving the best possible outcomes for their GCSEs your son/daughter will be sitting practice exams in English and Maths, details below.

The first of these will take place week commencing 15th October 2018 and teachers will provide revision materials to prepare students.

Could you please ensure your son/daughter is correctly equipped for these exams and that they are outside venues at least ten minutes prior to the start time.

All other subjects will be assessed during the practice exam period in December.
